At this date 28 Sep. 1920 Harry Beecher Tedrow U.S. Dist. Atty. for state of Colorado- second term.

Quite complete Genealogy data will be found in the Phila. Pa. Library-George W. Geist expected to deposit his record there. His address was Frankford (Phila) Pa.
Phares Geist has quite complete record- he is now dead-left no direct descendents - his data may have been deposited in the Phila Library.

The Tedrow family can furnish Vital Data down to 1911 with history to establish the earlier dates.

We have spent time and money in this and in the absence of any worked out lines.

Sincerely hope some one may be benefitted by our endeavors and assist in establishing weak points.

m. 8th day of August 1786

Reuben Tedrow was son of Michael Tedrow who came from Germany and a brother of Michael Tedrow who m.-------King. Jane Leech was dau. of Thomas and Phebe (Penrose) Leech. Reuben Tedrow and his wife Jane Leech reached Athens Co. Ohio, near New England, both buried in New England gravey and with all other relatives including our Barbara Ann Geist referred to later. After Reuben Tedrow died, Jane Leech Tedrow his wife lived and died in home of their dau. Anna who married William Jackson. William Jackson lived to advanced age and left accurate data of the Tedrow and Geist families (they had all lived in same locality in Pa. and again in Ohio.

Our Reuben Tedrow and his brother Michael removed to Glade, Somerset Co., Pa. They both held land under Land Grants.

We find Reuben Tedre in Md. Arch., a Rev. soldier. We have not established him as our Reuben--may have been.

Reuben and Jane (Leech) Tedrow were parents of 13 children.

1. John b. 14 Oct. 1787 m---Bain.

We have the names of most, if not all, of the children of the above 13 children.

Our interest is in Joseph b. 28 July 1799, d. 28 Oct. 1839 m. Barbara Ann Geist dau. of Thomas and Susannah (Pickel) Geist, she, b. 4 Jan. 1805, d. 2 Ap. 1884. They were married 17 Oct. 1824.

GEIST

First of the Geist familywas one "Gayst a king titled "Von Wildenick" 1129 A.D. of Ravensburg, Germany, situated in lower part of Germany 22 miles north of Friednch afen on Lake Bodensee, now Lake of Constance and about 25 miles west of the Bavanan line. The Geist castle showed in the hills, valley of the river Laura, its name was castle or Burg "Wildeneck", and our forbears wrote themselves "Geist Von Wildeneck"--in older times "Geyst Von Wildenegg. Geists were of nobility. We find four coat of arms. We have a copy of the one from the Holy Roman Register that of Von Wildeneck. It bears the golden crown, shaped to denote royalty. The motto of difficult translation is "Militis Indomiti Vini" It is rendered to English by Chicago University as "of a soldier, an imrucible hen," the "of" "meaning" "belonging to". Early in 17th cent. the Geist family lost its nobility, thereafter, they are found in faculties of the universities.

"Militis Indomiti Viri"

1. Johan Georg Girst b. in Germany in 16th cent. with wf. and four children landed in Phila. 26 Sep. 1737 from the (ship) Andrew Galley from Rotterdam, John Steadman, master. All children, b. in Bavaria.

One particular point, the Supt, said, could not be constructed according to Tedrow's idea--it--and is now known as Tedrow's Folly. Under physical exam., Spanish Am. War, Harry B. Tedrow measured perfect, he posed as model for monument to memory Spanish Am. soldiers.

James W. Hampton, who m. Susannah Hatonia Tedrow, added the initial "W" to his name for identification. Have not searched in his line, but when a young man was with his parents in Washington Co., Ohio, his people were Quakers and had made their homes along the Ohio River and had made of these homes stations of the Underground Railway for escape of negroes. He came to Iowa, Jones co., near Anamosa abt. 1855. He had a brother Eli, a sister Anna who m. ___ Risser of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, an invalid sister Phebe, who lived to quite an old age and died.

One brother, Jesse, who was wounded in Civil War, came to Liberty, Iowa, Clark Co. where James and Susannah resided. He lived about one year and is buried in Liberty graveyard. Susannah, while teaching school at Fairview, six mi. south of Anamosa, met James W., and later they were m. at home of her uncle Joe Morrison near Trenton, Henry Co., Iowa. Uncle Joe Morrison was a Campbellite and was fond of "argueing religion." James W. Hampton resided many years Mt. Pleasant, Henry Co., Iowa, and removed to Denver, Colo. and there died. In Iowa engaged in Mercantile business.
